Discredited

BOSTON, May [illegible]—It is reported that the whole seal destruction of the New Foundland sealing fleet is discredited here. A [illegible] hose [illegible] lost [illegible] vessels are lost or missing but two or three of the latter were [illegible] given up. The crews of all vessels known to be lost were saved except 45 out of [illegible] men of the brig H.

NEW YORK, May 28.—A report from the New Foundland firm of Harvey & Co confirm the Boston dispatch in reference to the exaggerated reports of the seal fleet disaster and says the report is false in respect to all but three vessels. He has advices of the safe return of most of the fleet.

CHICAGO May 26.—Charles Retticker a California boy attempted at Dexter Park to ride 200 miles in 12 consecutive hours. On the 1[illegible]th mile the horse bucked jumped a rail and threw Retticker with such force that he was taken up unconscious and now lies in a low state though his physicians hope for his recovery.

In the hurdle race on the same track shortly after the above accident one of the horses fell [illegible] himself and injured his rider it is thought fatally.

WASHINGTON CITY

Congressional

WASHINGTON May [illegible].—In the House [illegible] said if the majority had voted in the affirmative on the Ku Klux bill he would report the House bill which was defeated [illegible] the Senate bill and which the majority would pass but as the vote disclosed a majority against the bill he would not report the House bill unless further instructed by the committee.

The bill granting the right of way to the Utah Idaho [illegible] railroad passed under suspension of the rules.

The conference report on the bill authorizing the President to appoint a Paymaster General of the army was presented and agreed to, and the House adjourned.

The defeat of the Ku Klux bill in the House had an important bearing on the question of the final adjournment of Congress, the understanding being that if the vote disclosed a majority in favor of the measure the Senate would not act on the concurrent resolution for final adjournment on June 3d, but allow Congress to adjourn to a [illegible] to be called together by proclamation to a new session unlimited in time. So large a Republican vote changed the programme.

The Rev Cloud delegation had audience with the President to-day. The President proposed to move them to the Cherokee Reservation.

In the Senate the House resolution to adjourn June 3d was concurred in.

The consideration of the tariff bill was resumed. The paragraphs in relation to books, and in relation to copies, were stricken out, leaving the present duty unchanged. Two clauses of the section repealing the duties on packages, commissions, brokerage, etc , were stricken out.

Sherman stated that the Finance Committee proposed additions to the free list amounting to $600 000.

In the evening session of the Senate, the free list was adopted with some reservations including the paragraphs putting lumber and hides on the free list. The section allowing a partial payment of duties in legal tenders, was also included.

The section relating to the duties on salt used in fish curing and the section repealing the act of 1866, relating to molasses they also reserved for consideration. They make a uniform tax on tobacco of 16 per cent as fixed by the House. Sherman opposed it as it reduced the revenue too much. He moved an amendment by making the tax on the finer kinds of tobacco 32 per cent and cheap grades 16 cents.

Without voting the Senate adjourned.

London News

LONDON May 28.—In the House of Commons this morning Gladstone replied very briefly to questions of Disraeli and Horseman on the supplemental article making no statement of importance and furnishing no new information.

The sensation in the House this evening was a speech by Tom Hughes opposing the usual adjournment of Parliament for Derby day which occurs to-morrow. In rising he was greeted by ironical cheers and laughter. He vigorously denounced the English race course showing that it introduced a more corrupt and insidious system of gambling than ever disgraced any country, and declared it incompatible with the dignity of the Commons to recognize horse racing. While he opposed horse racing he believed in boat races cricket and other salutary competition of human strength and pluck which he thought ought to be encouraged. The motion to adjourn was carried by 212 to 50.

PARIS May 28.—The Soir authoritatively says Christine Nilsson will marry M. Rouzaud in Paris early in July.

From Madrid

MADRID May —The Cortes reassembled to-day. A resolution of censure on the late Ministry was rejected.

POLITICAL NOTES

"What shall we do with Greeley" is the present agitating [illegible] with the Democrats.

Jeff Davis is for Greeley because he is trying to beat the man who beat him and because he bailed him when the Democrats failed him.

Senator Oliver P Morton emphatically declares that he is opposed to any change of front at the Philadelphia Convention, and says that he is for Grant all the time.

Mr Elihu Burritt is said to make a point of learning a new language every year. This year he thinks of undertaking the tariff plank of the Liberal Republican platform.

If we may credit one Colonel McRae of Memphis Tennessee a political millennium is about to dawn on the South. "Give us Greeley" he said at Cincinnati "and he can have all the rebel vote all the loyal vote and all the negroes and dogs." For the first and last named Colonel McRae may vouch having himself worn the gray but for the [illegible] reason [illegible] he is incompetent to speak for the [illegible].

The B[illegible] Washington dispatch says that the report that Mr Greeley will withdraw from the field if he is not endorsed by the Democratic [illegible] has given rise to an apprehension [illegible] [illegible] by some Democrats [illegible] warranted attempt at dictation to the party organization. [illegible] the [illegible] Democrats shall not be [illegible] Greeley [illegible] If such things happen before a truce what may they expect after [illegible] surrender.

[illegible] has been interviewed. He says: "My belief is that the Democrats of the West will not support Greeley. His whole political career has been such as to make him unpopular with men who hold such decided Democratic views as those held by the Democrats of the West. The Baltimore Convention may not nominate a Democrat. It is not unlikely that Judge Davis will receive the nomination. It is certain that he can carry New York Indiana and Pennsylvania. If he had been nominated by the Cincinnati Convention there might have been no necessity for a Democratic Convention."

GENERAL NOTES AND NEWS

[illegible] date from B[illegible] before the fire.

General M[illegible] has been appointed to command the military district of Utah.

[illegible] recently sent over from [illegible] are [illegible] clear the ground.

An Iowa [illegible] Baldwin [illegible] county owned a defective [illegible] $600.

William H Seward and the friends show their determination to support Grant for re-election in opposition to Greeley.

Prince Pierre Bonaparte is said to think of [illegible] a [illegible] gallery in connection with his [illegible] establishment in London.

A Western correspondent writing from the Cincinnati Convention so far forgets the respect due to the female suffrage party as to call Miss Anthony "Susie."

It is a noteworthy fact that during the last [illegible] years New York has never re-elected a United States Senator with one solitary exception Wm H Seward.

Charles Nordhoff says the sensation of a California earthquake is exactly similar to that experienced when a street car runs off the track and is dragged over the cobbles.

A wedding took place at La Crosse, Wisconsin, a few days ago at which according to a local journal, "the bride was given away by the city and the city was glad to get rid of her."

The Toledo Blade says "Horace Greeley turns in horror from the corrupt Leet and the more corrupt Stocking to find sweet comfort in the arms of the Blairs. Gentle Horace. Guileless Greeley."

Judge Davis says that he has retired from politics; that he will not be a candidate for President before the Democratic Convention and that he shall recommend the working men to support General Grant.

The bids received at the Treasury Department for the construction of a new revenue marine vessel [illegible] do duty on Puget Sound have all been rejected. The figures were pronounced exorbitant in the extreme.

Grant used to set type. Colfax is an old newspaper man while Greeley and Brown are experienced printers. Four types running for the highest offices in the people's gift ought to make a good impression.

At Nassau New Hampshire the fish are sold in the market while still alive being kept in tubs of water. A single blow upon the head of the fish closes the bargain and the purchaser is sure of the freshness of the article.

A newsboy having been garroted and robbed at Jacksonville Ill the Chicago Times says that highwaymen will be attacking reporters soon as these gentlemen stand next below newsboys in the scale of journalistic opulence.

"When I get you in St Louis I'll kill you" said a Texan desperado to a cattle drover at Abilene. "Why not kill me here?" "Because they'd hang me here but in St Louis they'd think me insane and let me go."

Spinks says that when he is buried he shall not be particular about plumes and things on the hearse, but he would like to have somebody in the procession to carry his life insurance policy on a pole that people might see what a rich young widow he has left.

In reply to a question by some Arkansas Republicans whether Sumner intends to support Greeley or Grant, the Senator says he awaits the action of the Philadelphia Convention, hoping that somebody may be nominated there better able than Grant to unite the Republican party.

The Western Union Telegraph Company during 18[illegible] purchased over fourteen thousand miles of telegraph wire for the necessities of that year. Already eight thousand miles have been purchased for 1872 and the prospects are that over fifteen thousand miles will be required this year.

An affectionate Detroit man was sent for the other day to remonstrate with his sister who had been trying to take poison. He knocked her down and dragged her round the room by her hair, and finished by tenderly assuring her that "if she didn't go to work, and let the suicide business alone, he would break her neck for her."

Says the St. Louis Democrat: "The funeral of Miss Emily Chapman, a beautiful young lady and one of the belles of St Louis society, will take place at St Xavier's Church at 10 o clock this morning. The music is expected to be unusually fine inasmuch as some of the most distinguished amateur vocalists have volunteered to pay this fitting tribute to the deceased."

FOREIGN NOTES

One of the best painters in Antwerp paints with his feet.

The annual income of the London Times from advertisements is said to amount to a little over $1 4[illegible] 000.

Abolition of purchase in the British army has provoked much discontent among the officers of that service.

The people of Mexico are dissatisfied with the refusal of Juarez to relinquish the Dictatorship which expired on April 20th.

An enlisted soldier under ordinary circumstances can purchase his discharge from the English army for $30 in time of peace only.

The laws of Germany are interpreted to signify that women can vote in that country and of course, the advocates thereof are jubilant.

Nearly all the evidences of what Paris has passed through during the war are obliterated and the city is as wicked, gay and fascinating as ever.

The Protestant missionaries at Pekin have at length translated the English edition of the Bible into the Chinese language and are printing it in that country.

They have lately introduced into the street lamps of London strips of looking glass in the roofs. The reflection is said to throw three times as much light as the ordinary lamp.

The French Commission on Capitulation report that for the surrender of Strasburg the blame rests on General Uhrich on all points, and they especially censure him for screening himself and officers from the conditions imposed upon enlisted men.

The army returns for 18[illegible]3 show the force to be maintained in that year in the German Empire to number 4[illegible] men of whom 15 [illegible] are officers [illegible] horsemen and 1[illegible] surgeons. The infantry force absorbs 2[illegible], in 11[illegible] regiments and 94 regiments of cavalry.

Emigration from Ireland is constantly on the increase although the condition of the island as to wealth and material prosperity is improving. Not only is Ireland losing a large number of its people but it is being deprived of its young and energetic men and women who make up a large percentage of its laboring forces until already there is felt in the districts of Kerry Tipperary and Cork a serious want of laborers.

[illegible]ssia seems to be troubled with a class or religious sect who are by profession of faith opposed to the dangers and turmoils of war. In the southern part of that Empire is a colony of about 40 000 people calling themselves Mennonites who [illegible] escape the obligations of military service under the Czar propose to come to the United States. This sect was founded in the early part of the sixteenth century by Simon Menno and [illegible] for many years [illegible] the swamps [illegible] which they converted into arable and cultivated [illegible] Catherine [illegible] to come to Russia and [illegible] from her very favorable promises among which were exemption from military service. This promise the present Czar [illegible] abrogate hence the dissatisfaction. These people are represented as being quiet extremely inoffensive honest [illegible] and industrious and would be a valuable accession to our country.

A native of Maine proposes to have the sun moon and six of the planets rise simultaneously by electricity during the performance of "The Heavens are telling" at the great Jubilee. Venus coyly refuses to be one of the company.

Here's a conundrum for free-traders: The gross products of manufactures throughout the United States last year amounted to four thousand millions of dollars. What would they have amounted to under a free trade regimen during the same period?

EASTERN STATES

Fire in New York

NEW YORK May —A large brick building occupied by Farber & Co. as a pencil manufactory took fire early this morning together with several squares of shanties the occupants of which had to flee for their lives and was totally consumed. The loss is over $100 000 supposed to be insured.

Political News.

The Democratic organization under the leadership of Ben Wood, last evening adopted a resolution to co-operate with the Liberal Republican mass meeting on Monday night next. A motion to instruct the New York delegation to the Baltimore Convention to vote for Greeley, was unanimously carried.

James Gordon Bennett is ill.

NEW ORLEANS May 29.—The Pinchback faction of Republicans met here yesterday. The State Convention appointed committees and adjourned till to-day. It is thought to be the programme to introduce Greeley resolutions, and if rejected, Greeley delegates will withdraw and hold a separate Convention and take measures to unite with some other political organization which is friendly to the Cincinnati platform.

Massachusetts Labor Convention

BOSTON, May 29.—The Massachusetts Labor Union Convention met here yesterday. Wendell Phillips offered a series of resolutions, which were adopted after a long debate, approving all labor associations, and announcing belief in the expediency and necessity of strikes but denouncing violence; advocating Congressional establishment of Labor Unions; declaring that all dividend paying companies should be obliged to divide half of the net profits among them, and that imported pauper contract work should be dutiable.

Miscellaneous News

INDIANAPOLIS, May 29.—The Grand Masonic Lodge of this State in session here is largely attended. The principal business of public interest is its action upon the proposition made at the last Communication to build a grand Masonic Temple at Indianapolis.

The Goat Island Scheme

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Senator Stewart agrees not to call up the Goat Island bill this session. If the latter movement is allowed to fail, the Goat Island scheme will be resumed.

The Supplemental Article.

The N Y Herald's Washington dispatch says the protocol endorsed by the Senate is reported to be so arranged as to hold the declaration of the principle instead of a mere surrender of demand for consequential damages, and there is therefore a probability that Great Britain will be dissatisfied at the whole matter and that it may be again made the subject of further diplomatic correspondence. Secretary Fish thinks the Administration won a diplomatic victory, and the President says he won't recede any further.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

SAN DIEGO May 29.—The stage from San Bernardino brings intelligence of a bold and successful jail delivery at that place yesterday morning but not discovered until the afternoon. By using bars of old buckets the prisoners succeeded in wrenching out one of the iron supports of the wall and dug through the prison walls. One of the escaped prisoners was a Mexican under sentence of death for the murder of his wife. Gardner indicted for the murder of the Bederbeck brothers was in an adjoining cell, but did not escape. The only other prisoner left is an Indian convicted of horse-stealing, who refused to join the desperadoes in their flight. He asserts his innocence of the crime for which he was convicted and was afraid to inform on the prisoners through fear of death. The Marshal officers and a squad of volunteers started in pursuit. Horsemen are out in all directions—to the desert and the mountains. At the time the stage left no clue was discovered.

The Labor Movements.

RECENT SUCCESSFUL EIGHT HOUR STRIKES.

[From the N Y Herald, May 14]

The great question of labor, which is quietly biding the time to take its place among the great movements of the century, is [illegible] just now several instances of the [illegible] which attends the combinations of the [illegible] People are likely to fall to sneering when they see, as in Connecticut, of late, that a Labor Reform candidate for Governor [illegible] received a score or two of votes, and that its candidate for President is quietly [illegible] before he has time to make a stump [illegible] But the movement is not to be so [illegible] disposed of for all time. It stands at [illegible] with its feet in the earth and its head in the clouds, plodding on as ever below and its brain full of vague Utopia above. As to broad, clearly defined ideas, possible of application, it has none at present which could take up and rivet the attention of the whole people to their serious consideration. A great many lay this want of coherent comprehensive plan at the door of its demagogue leaders, but its real cause will be found in the condition of the great body of labor it[illegible]. Like the Union forces in the beginning of the war, the army of labor is a badly drilled mob, impressive only in numbers, and just as little capable of taking or keeping a position against such a wary, organized foe as capital, for they have not thoroughly learned the use of their offensive arms, the "strike" and the ballot. In such a condition it is not wonderful that frothy creatures with a few catchwords such as equality, capital, tyranny, revolution, and so forth, should by their [illegible] mouthedness be taken for their leaders. The work of discipline, however, goes on, and we are called upon from time to time to chronicle the results of their skirmishes with the enemy, recording a varying success. It can be seen at once that the process of organization, although limited to certain crafts, [illegible] members are concentrated in numbers [illegible] venient for the purpose, is rapidly [illegible] and, with the [illegible] rate of progress, it can be easily computed that many years will not elapse before the present "company" drill of the arts [illegible] into the [illegible], division and army [illegible] on the [illegible] ed scale. In other words, the [illegible] strike of to-day of a certain branch of [illegible] will mean in the end bodily [illegible] ful ballot box battles for the [illegible] of counties and States, and lastly, for the [illegible] Union itself.

The New York painters' strike of last [illegible] for eight hours of labor and no [illegible] of wages, was successful; the carpenters' [illegible] inaugurated yesterday on the [illegible] will record its full success in a day or two. The bricklayers, it is understood, will [illegible] next week, with the same object and [illegible] similar prospects. It will be [illegible] that these three trades are at the base of the building interest, and their [illegible] of the [illegible] for "striking" evinces a bold and [illegible] prepared plan. They were aware that at the present season capital in this branch is screwed up with contracts, and an [illegible] would leave it no resources but [illegible]. The eight hour legislation of Congress [illegible] ineffectual in controlling private firms, and now labor steps in with its injunction and an understanding is instantly arrived at. It cannot be denied that the Eight Hour law, although obtaining legally only on Government works, has had considerable effect in paving the way for the present spread of the system to private enterprises. There is a [illegible] fear among the weak-minded that, as labor learns its strength, it will become so overbearing as to become a tyranny upon capital, but as labor progresses, it will learn of itself the limit to which it can go without destroying its own means of existence. Capital may grumble as the giant feels his power and begins intelligently to exercise it, yet as it is necessary that capital must exist and act with a certain unconstrainedness, labor, secure in its might, can only maintain its position of watchfulness and conserve the advances it has gained. It has much ground to recover yet before that goal is reached, much drilling to undergo and much patience to exercise. The late and prospective victories of the building trades are something for labor to be joyful over, though they were simply achieved by a number of men saying to capital, "We will work eight hours if you wish, but if you think you can afford it we will not work at all." Capital preferred to save them from the sin of idleness.

[illegible] obtained [illegible] to get [illegible] the same [illegible] bring Portland under the [illegible] powers and to divest [illegible] municipal rights The managers [illegible] ration traded their way through [illegible] ture and have been trying to [illegible] Legislature that will be obedient [illegible] By strange inconsistency the Democratic party professes to be making [illegible] against corporations yet it willingly becomes the champion of the corporation which has most largely plundered the State and which still wants more.

We are willing and the people are willing to let this corporation keep what it has provided it will build the road but it should have nothing more There is a fair and valid contract between it and the State Let that contract be fulfilled But when we see this corporation and those who are working in its behalf making such prodigious exertions to get control of another Legislature there is every reason to believe that something is contemplated which is not just to the State and for this reason the movement will bear watching

The Tariff Question

For twenty years before the war the average of duties under the secession acts of Congress was about twenty five per cent and from 1857 to the breaking out of the war in 1861, the average was twenty and a quarter per cent The war tariff of 1861 began with an average of thirty eight per cent which was increased in 1864 to nearly fifty per cent, and with the subsequent slight reductions, the average of the tariff duties as they now stand, is about forty four per cent That the general prosperity of the country during the past ten years is largely owing to the maintenance of this high rate of tariff is the great stumbling block in the way of the free traders and the secret of their continued failure to secure any material reduction on articles which enter into competition with home manufacture At the opening of the present session of Congress a concerted and powerful effort was agreed upon but it has met with disastrous defeat

In a recent speech attacking the bill Mr Dawes, of Massachusetts Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee gave his views on protection His theory is that there can be no fair competition without equality of condition, and if the conditions for cheap manufacture are less favorable in this than in foreign countries the true policy of Government is to level up the adverse conditions by means of duties imposed upon the foreign article, so that the home manufacturer may compete successfully with the foreign This process he terms equalization, and if that equalization results in driving the foreign articles out of the market then he says domestic competition will spring up and the home manufacturer will thus be kept down to a fair profit It seems likely these views so far as he has been able to embody them in the bill now before the House will be endorsed by a majority vote. This bill contemplates a reduction of forty-four million dollars, fifteen millions of which are on internal taxes and is similar in its general provisions to the bill recently passed by the Senate

Cordiality Wanting

If we judge from the following which we take from the Washington Patriot the central organ of the Democratic party not much cordiality is felt toward Greeley in certain Democratic circles

> Mr Greeley repeated in a personal interview recently, what had already appeared in the Tribune more than a month ago, "that the failure of the Democratic Convention to endorse him might effect this (his withdrawal) as he would not act the cat's paw for the election of a third ticket If the Democratic party had been represented in the Cincinnati Convention, or there had been any understanding with it, this menace might be justified But as the contrary is true we are at a loss to comprehend upon what foundation the claim to a Democratic endorsement rests If we agree on amnesty and the outrage of carpet bag rule in the South we disagree as to local self government in the States Kuklux legislation and the whole brood of pestilent Radical laws of which Mr Greeley has been the most ardent champion and through which it is designed to centralize power in the hands of the few for the oppression of the many These questions concern the very existence of free institutions and we will never consent to surrender them for any supposed and passing expediency

The Patriot thus talks about the Convention that nominated Mr Greeley

> Between the ideal standard of excellence raised in the opening address of Mr Schurz and the conclusion there is as wide a gulf as of old The Convention was captured before it met The theorists philosophers and exalted thinkers who went to Cincinnati clad in robes of purity and with the promise of a political millenium on their lips were soon extinguished like so many soap bubbles, or used to defeat their own visionary projects The Missouri platform which was the corner stone of the whole structure was smashed into flinders at the outset and the engineers who for long months had toiled with unflagging zeal to engraft a peculiar theory on the Convention which they had created found themselves hoist with their own petard

We had no expectation of curing Mr Nesmith of billingsgate and scurrility But we are gratified to ascertain that our remarks upon the habitual obscenity of his harangues have produced in him a change for the better His speech here on Tuesday evening though violent and vituperative was less smutty than any he ever delivered in Oregon Yet it was by no means free from blackguardism Throughout the whole course of his remarks he showed that the strictures of the Oregonian had cut him to the quick This was a way he had of admitting that they were just and deserved We have done a job for Mr Nesmith which should have been done long ago

In an article on Mr Nesmith a few days ago we held up a mirror before him in which he was able to see with clearness the lineaments of his character He turned back with fierce anger from the picture and since then has been devoting [illegible] energy to abuse of the person [illegible] him to see himself as others see him Mr Nesmith had lived long without enjoying an acquaintance with himself A wise man would have learned the old Greek maxim [illegible] his time of life

Let every resident of this city who has lived here since 1867 or 1868 answer Yet this is the man the capitalist who has done all this, that the laboring classes of Portland are cautioned to beware of to drive from our State to send him and his immense capital far away from Oregon that he may never again spend a dollar Laboring men of Portland what benefit would you derive from all this? Where or what is the recompense offered you by these counselors for such a sacrifice Have they promised you employment in lieu of what the enterprises of Mr Holladay now provide I am afraid not There is not enough aggregated capital in Oregon to prosecute the enterprises in which Mr Holladay is now engaged Then who are to employ you Surely not the [illegible] who were unable to complete twenty miles of the West Side Railroad started by that company four or five years ago If not these who then are they? Be true to your own interests mechanics and laborers of Portland Heed not the foul slanders these disappointed politicians and hungry office seekers heap up on a man whom he has benefitted rather than [illegible] Listen not to the malicious falsehoods propagated about him for you know and others know that four fifths of you would not now call Oregon your permanent or temporary home had your labor not been called here by the enterprises Mr Holladay has projected This true your labor would have added to the wealth of other States but it has been called here to enrich [illegible] and what is the gratitude of some of her people? Think well of this when you approach the polls on Monday next Give ear to the counsel of reason who whispers to you the sound advice Support the party who has benefitted us who treat a labor for our hand to do and pays liberally for it and that is not the Dolly Varden crew who have no existence as a party but fighting merely for the spoils of office

A REPUBLICAN

Who are Monopolists?

To the Citizens of Portland and Multnomah County Having read the appeal to the mechanics and laboring men of this city and county to be true and noble men I wondered if this came from the would be old Boss Tweed or some other old hypocrite of his stamp Such an objurgation coming from one so vile should call forth the just indignation of every honest sound thinking man in this community What does he want us to be true to? The Dolly Varden ticket and his kind I suppose If he or they vote the Varden Dolly are they not voting for usurpers and monopolists? I would like to ask if Shattuck is a monopolist or not and usurper Has he not usurped and monopolized to a great degree the school lands of this State And he cries Down with monopoly Is Joe Teal a monopolist Has he not monopolized the school lands of Oregon? Is he not at the present time holding homesteads in this State and Washington Territory by proxy or otherwise? Has he not in fact monopolized everything within his reach?

Mechanics and laboring men and business men listen not to this cry of Monopoly You cannot find one of those who are crying Monopolist but what always have and always will monopolize everything within their reach Now I would like to know in what particular Holladay has monopolized anything He came among us when our city was dead in a business point of view The channels of our rivers were in a manner closed It was through his instigation and efforts that Congress was memorialized [illegible] in opening and keeping open the channel The ground had been broken for a railroad on the East side of the river but it was finally abandoned Mr Holladay took up that road and built it to the satisfaction of all What was the result Did Portland and the valley languish Judge Shattuck knows that it more than quadrupled the value of the few acres of land that he actually owned on the east side and on the west accordingly Yes he is one of those who have been made easy in his life in a pecuniary sense through Mr Holladay's improvements in this city and valley

The west side road was started by some of our enterprising citizens but after grading three or four miles and building down a few tumble down bridges they abandoned it Mr Holladay then made a proposition to the citizens of Portland to the effect that if they would subscribe $100,000 he would build and equip twenty miles of the road by a given time The citizens subscribed the amount to be paid to Mr Holladay when the agreement on his part was complied with Do you call this or that monopoly? No None that give any portion of that money say anything about it but those who have made comfortable through his enterprise say to you Well we don't believe in giving him anything He has given more than [illegible] Every man's property in the county and wherever his enterprises reach in the State have more than trebled in value He has done more than any forty men in Portland like Joe Teal or A J Boss Tweed or their ilk for the advancement of our city or State

Now fellow citizens mechanics and laboring men of the county of Multnomah and city of Portland look at these things in their true light Our State is young We want population Railroads will bring it These men who are crying monopolist are like the dog in the manger They would not if they could build a railroad or let any one else do it if they could help it Your little homes and pieces of property are trebled through the works of this gigantic monopolist as called by the Dolly Vardenites Three years ago any of us could have gone out one two or three miles from our city and purchased many of the forsaken and abandoned farms for from three to eight hundred dollars piece and now you could not buy the same for a many thousand

He saw fit to buy Estes & Stimpson's saw mill They asked their price and he paid it They knew he was going to monopolize the mill business because he bought it If next thought it would be advantage us to purchase the Dray & Hack Company's institution They asked their price and he paid it You who want a Dray and Hack institution start one Don't go around with your hands in your pockets singing Oh! the monopolist He next purchases the steamboats of the P T Co They (the company) knew that he bought those boats to run them The river is open the sea also to any who see fit to run their boats and steamers [illegible] capital he went and mo[illegible]

Not a Success as a President Maker

General Stanley Mathews of Cincinnati in the course of his speech on assuming his duty as temporary Chairman of the late so called Liberal Republican Convention held in that city made the following statement

"And so, gentlemen in every department of the Government the slow poison of corruption—only not sufficiently slow—seems to have pervaded the whole civil and political Administration of the country from the head to the foot [Applause]

A personal friend of Mr Mathews connected with one of the Departments in Washington after reading his speech wrote a letter to the General calling his attention to the above statement and expressing the hope that when he should come [illegible] the statement he would regret [illegible] This brought from General Mathews the following answer

MY DEAR SIR Nothing connected with the recent disgraced and disgraceful Convention at this place has given me so much pain as your note calling my attention to a statement taken from a speech of mine [illegible] with the interpretation [illegible] evidently put upon it

THURSDAY MORNING M

CITY.

J H Reed was next called ... He directed ... thunder against the one man power ... of capital the dangers of monopolies and used some very specious arguments ... the Lock swindle He said ... such a pass ... could own and ... a bakery a shoe shop a restaurant, a ... a boat anything—not even his own soul ... was grasping everything and soon the people would be his most servile slaves unless they rose in their united might and he led the despo ... power which he concluded by saying the people would do triumphantly at the polls next Monday

Judge Shattuck was called out and spoke in his usual strain for a few minutes In a word he was opposed to Ben Holladay's being in this country, that he not only was absorbing the dear interests of the state but was actually the possessor of men's ... thoughts and actions After giving his audience such a compliment he ... from the box to give place for Mr Walter Moffett, the People's candidate for the Legislature He ... as of the school boy who mounted the rostrum and said "You'd scarce expect one of my age to get up here upon the stage," etc He said he was no speaker and he had not proceeded far before we were convinced of that fact Amid vociferous yells he subsided Loud calls were made ... J P Mason who was, when our reporter left, fulminating against railroads and steamship monopolies

FIRE ALARM —At about half past ... o'clock last evening an alarm of fire was struck from Willamette Engine Company's house In a few minutes the entire Department was on the ground in the immediate neighborhood of the corner of Front and Alder streets The cause of the alarm was the burning of a defective flue in Carter's building which was found to be difficult to get at but after the cement and window sash and a few brick were torn away the firemen managed to subdue it ... considerable excitement existed and an immense quantity of water was thrown over the buildings in the vicinity A large crowd gathered on the streets which were impassable for some time The damage done was not very great About one hundred dollars will cover the loss

DECORATION DAY —This evening at ... o'clock the members of the Grand Army of the Republic of Baker Post invited guests from neighboring Posts the members of the several military companies of this city and all soldiers sailors and marines in any manner connected with the late rebellion will meet at the corner of First and Madison streets and form in procession. The procession headed by a band will parade through the principal streets of the city and march to the Court House where the usual ceremonies of Decoration Day will be observed with due impressive rites. The exercises will take place at the Court House, to which the public are cordially invited Very extensive preparations have been made and the occasion will no doubt be one of great interest

"TO WHAT BASE USES" ETC —In his speech at the Theater Tuesday evening Nesmith quoted verbatim Sydney Smith's description of the condition of the taxed masses of England and attempted to make his audience imagine that it was original He must have entertained a very low estimate of the ... and intelligence of his listeners The trouble was that Nesmith vainly imagined that his audience was composed entirely of Democrats. If that had been the case he might have ... the imposition But there were too many Republicans not to discover the plagiarism If Smith had ever imagined that his words would have been prostituted to such purposes he would never have been their author

GEN SAXTON —We take this from the Washington Chronicle of the 17th General Rufus Saxton who was here for several months settling his accounts with the Treasury left yesterday for Portland, Oregon to resume his duties as Chief Quartermaster Department Columbia While in Washington General Saxton took charge of the case of the Quartermasters alleged to have been unjustly passed over in 1866 by President Johnson and Secretary Stanton but failed to establish the legal ... of his case and refused to accept less than the establishment of ... adverse to the whole established system ...

WILL BE ACCURSED —A speaker stated publicly the other evening in a speech ... before the fall rains set in there would be no Couch's Lake This may appear at first glance a reckless assertion but when more closely examined is not so extravagant At present there are ... trains of from eight to ten dump cars passing down the track every hour or about three ... trains every day Each car will contain about four cubic yards of earth or forty tons to be transported There are over four months yet before the winter rains and it can be seen that there is some foundation for the remark At the present rate a vast amount of filling in can be accomplished in that time

QUALIFICATIONS —A friend suggests that to become a successful local reporter in any ... the following qualifications are necessary large capacities for free drinks and cigars, a sort of a hankering after dead head tickets and donated articles of apparel ... everything left in an office ... a red hot stove a minimum of education ... of conscience ditto of spirit ... outside the office and a profound reverence for the paper ... These qualifications would be well ... theory but they would be ... practice

SW ... —An ... though ... bathing in ponds adjacent ... the parent ... neglected to give ... benefit of ... warning ... paid no heed to parental admonition ... the pond in the vicinity were ... naked and industrious boys as they were of ... wogs We have not had the honor of seeing any pollywogs but we have observed ... of little ... disporting themselves in the slough in East Portland in the broad light of day

SPEAKING —Hon John H Mitchell will speak at the Court House tomorrow Friday evening to commence at ... o'clock and Attorney General Williams on Saturday evening at the same place and hour It is needless to urge Republicans to attend these meetings as ... gentlemen is of itself a sufficient inducement

ADMITTED —The following persons were admitted to citizenship in the ... District Court yesterday L W ... William Bishop ... England and William W ... and J ... Christian of Saxony

SMOKE —Yesterday evening a ... column of smoke was seen ... summit of Mount Hood The ... assumed a peculiar shape ... and lasted ...

LOST —A reward of ... will be paid for the recovery of a bank book ... valuable papers ... to the ... reward

DISCHARGED —The jury summoned in the case of M S Har ... charged with fraud was discharged this morning there being no occasion for their further attendance on the court

SALE —The sale of real property advertised in the delinquent tax list will take place about the middle of next month

We advise young men who ... at street corners to eat ... laudanum instead of strychnine ... have suggested laudanum ... recommend ... the young men in question ... painless soothing and effectual

RECEPTION OF ATTORNEY GENERAL WILLIAMS

Brief notice was given to our citizens yesterday that Attorney General Williams would arrive on a special train from Corvallis at ... o'clock P M and at that hour a large crowd of people headed by the East Portland Brass Band took up the line of march for the corner of Fourth and Oak streets where it was announced the train would halt At the appointed time the train appeared with the distinguished gentleman on board A committee welcomed him and through Hon J H Mitchell introduced him to the crowd, when he made a few remarks thanking the people for the hearty welcome which they accorded and saying that to be thus received by those among whom he had so long resided and with whom all his interests were identified, was a matter he should long remember with gratitude and respect. He had traveled the whole length of the State and on every hand saw the evidences of the prosperity and happiness of the people and in this prosperity he rejoiced and believed that it was permanent and would continue to increase He was glad that the great enterprises of internal improvement were being pushed forward though he regretted that certain parties had mixed up these improvements with politics He had landed in Portland when it contained only a few cabins along the river and the stumps of trees were standing on Front street Now he looked out on a large and rapidly growing city with its towering church spires its numerous school houses its splendid business establishments and fine residences while its streets were alive with the activity of trade and commerce and he was proud to say he had in a small measure contributed his share to bring all this about He felt that an honor had been conferred on him as the State which he represented in making him the head of one of the Executive Departments of this great Republic He had no ... here and would further say ... one of his objects in coming at this time was to help beat the Democratic party He had been announced to speak at the Court House on Saturday on political matters and would not say anything on that question at that time He again thanked the audience for their cordial greeting and retired amid great cheering by the entire crowd which was very large and in great part composed of the leading and influential citizens of Portland

POLITICAL SPEAKING —Several of the county candidates and others were out at Multnomah precinct yesterday and a number of speeches were made most of the voters of that precinct being present Messrs Mulkey Congle J C Moreland Harris Silver and others spoke in behalf of the Republicans and Messrs Shattuck Cronin and other ... on behalf of the Dolly Vardenites The candidates will speak at Sandy to day

A Fancy.

Something came to my soul to-day,
Out of the misty past,
As a spar from a wrecked and sunken ship
May float to the shore at last;
A vague and shadowy vision
That vanished as soon as it came,
For memory could not grasp it
Or give it a place or name.

It seemed like a dim remembrance
Of life in another sphere,
And left me in silent wonder,
Waiting as if to hear
A voice I had long forgotten,
With message of welcome sound,
Lifting me nearer heaven,
As vapors rise from the ground.

There may be times when the spirit
Escapes from the house of clay
And flies to its native heaven,
As a child goes out to its play;
And the glimpses that flit so dimly
At times across memory's track
Are something it finds in heaven,
That it longs to carry back.

NASBY.

CONFEDERIT X ROADS,
(Wich is in the State uv Kentucky,)
May 8, 1872.

I hed a severe time uv it at the Corners, a gittin our people to consent to takin the great and good Horace Greeley to their buzzums, and embracin uv him the same as tho he hed been Breckinridge, Hoffman, or some sich man, wich they hed bin more familyer with. It took four days uv persistent swearin afore I could convince em they hed heard me denounce ez the vilest Ablishen despot on earth, a thousand times. Alas! they don't know the full elasticity uv the Democratic mind.

I called a meetin, and gave em an account uv my stewardship at Cincinnati.

I commenst my remarks by sayin that I went to Cincinnati with a view uv nominatin that sterlin patriot, Judge Davis, who, tho in office ez a Republikin, hezn't enough Republikinism about him to hurt him; or that other sterlin patriot, Charles Francis Adams, the son uv John Quincy Adams about him but the same. It wuz a gatherin uv the people, not an offis-holders' Convenshun, and that wuz what wuz the matter with us. Not one uv the delegates held a Government posishen, and not one uv us hed any chance of gittin one under Grant.

"Grant be d—d!" was the cry in chorus. "Give us anybody else."

I confess, tho, I was somewhat disappointed. The Convenshun hed throwd off on Adams and Davis, and nominated Greeley.

"Hang him!" shouted the people.

"I kin lick any man in a minute who asks me to vote for him!" shouted Kernel McPelter.

I paid no attention to these compliments.

"I had no idee uv even supportin him, and wuz glad uv his nominashen only ez I thot that he wood draw off enuff Republikin votes to enable us to elect a sound, Constitooshnel Democrat——"

"That's what we want—a sound, Constooshnel Democrat!" yelled Kernel McPelter, late uv the Confedrit servis.

"But I hev notist that the great majority uv the Demokratic papers—(I kin read, my brethren, and hev that advantage over yoo)—insist on adoptin him at our Convenshun, and ef so, he is our candidate."

"We'll see him——"

"Hold!" sed I quickly, "No good Demokrat kin bolt a regler nominashen, and after all Horris is not the wust one we kin hev. Our motto wuz 'Principles, not men.' We carried it out to the letter. We adopted principles; and ez for men, we come ez near nothin ez possible, under the circumstances. Troo, he is a high protective tariff man, wich don't soot Elder Pennibacker, but the Elder must remember that the versateel Horris is willin, if we will support him, to treat that ishoo ez one to be settled by the people elsewhere. He wuz an oppressor uv the South, Kernel McPelter wood say: Troo he wuz at times, and then agin at times he wusnt. I hev watched the great and good Greeley very closely for many years. There ain't no question that I now remember uv (except slavery and the price uv the New York Weekly Tribune), that he ain't bin on both sides uv a dozen times. Like the intoxicated indivijuel who couldn't git into bed cos the room wuz whirlin round, and who determined, finally, to lay still and wait till the bed come round to him, all that any question hez got to do is to stay still and Horris is certain to come round to it. He bleeved slavery wuz unconstitooshnel and yet wuz for payin the nigger owners for the nigger. He defended John Brown's raid and opposed secession. Then immejitly thereafter he favored secession then insisted on war agin us for [illegible], then urged the Federal hirelins on to Richmond; then tried to patch up a peace with us. He hez bin a Radical and Conservative; a Fourierite and a believer in bran bread. He opposed Taylor and supported him; in short he hez bin on all sides uv all questions—one side to-day, and tother to-morrow, and very frekently both at the same time. In short, I don't know uv nothin that he hezn't been, and can't imagine nothin that he ain't extremely likely to be. I read his record yesterday, and wuz wuss tore up in my mind than ez tho I hed bin on a drunk for a week. I never knowd more confusion or intoxicatin readin."

"But," said Dekin Pogram, "are we Dimocrats to be compelled to vote for such a bundle uv [illegible]?"

"My good friend," I replied blandly, "wood yoo like to receive from me the triflin sum uv one hundred and eighty dollars, which I owe you? Wood Bascom? Wood—"

From every indivijule in that awjence there came up like the roar uv a torrent, "Yes!"

On the question uv my payin my debts the Corners is singlerly yoonanimous.

"My brethren, the way to my liquidatin is Post Orifs, and Post Orifs only. Ef I wuz in my old place now okkepied by that disgustin nigger, Lubbock, yoo wood hev at least a chance for yoor money. Ef the great and good Greeley is elected, that nigger goes out and I go in. Pollock goes out uv the Collector's offis, and in goes Isaaker Gavitt or Kernel McPelter. Watkins, the nigger Assessor, won't be allowed to hold his place a minit, and that saint Deekin Pogram, or that other saint Elder Pennibacker, wood be immejitly installed and—"

("Hear! hear!" from Isaaker Gavitt, Elder Pennibacker, McPelter and Pogram—Kernel McPelter instantly lickin a man who indulged in laffter.)

"In short, my brethren, we want the offises. We hev been eatin grass, like Nebuchadnezzar, since 1860, (with the exception of Johnson's blessed years), and Pharaoh's lean kine aint nothin to us. We hunger and thirst for em. Uv course I'd rather git my place back agin thro Breckenridge, but rather than not hev it I'd take it from Wendell Phillips hisself. Ef Greeley is necessary to gittin them I go Greeley. He may shift ez fast ez he pleases, I kin follow him. Put that Post Orifis in front uv me, and ef he kin shift faster than I kin, I hev overestimated my powers in that line. And we shel git the ofisis under him. He will insist upon qualificashens strenuously, but he hez his own standard. He bleeves that them who admire Horris Greeley are, exoffisho, fit for any place under any government, and them that don't aint wuth a d—n for anything. I am talented at all [illegible] men, I am."

Pogram, Pennibecker, McPelter and Issaker Gavitt wuz entirely konvinced, but there wuz still murmurin amung others.

"Yoo idiots," sed I, sternly, "is Grant a Republikin?"

"He is!—he is!"

"Hev yu, ez Demokrats, ennything to ekspect from him?"

"We hevn't!" they replied.

"Do yoo know the pekooliarities uv the great and good Horris? We know what he is to-day; we know what he wus yesterday, and sich uv yoo as kin reed plain print and write without runnin your tongues out, kin ascertane what he wus before that. What he has been yoo know, but what he would be only the Almity, who knows all things, kin tell, and no one but he hisself supposes he is of sufficient mortal account to be made the subject uv prophesy. We are very certain uv a Republikan if Grant is elected—we may hev a Republikin or a Demokrat if Greeley succeeds. Its an even chance where he lites, with the per cent. in our favor, for uv koarse the Republikins will make fun uv him, which is the only thing he never forgives. Ez an uncertainty is better for us than a certainty, hurrah for Greeley!"

They wuz convinst, and immejitely a Greeley Club wuz organized. In Cincinnati I hed embarkt in a spekulashun. I hed twenty dollars left from the money I hed borrowed uv Judge Davis' committee, and I invested 'em in fifty white hats uv an anshent pattern expectin to sell em to the Greeley Club, wich I expected to organize, at, say $1.50 each. After the Club was organized I stated to em that the uniform must be the style uv dress uv our beloved chief—a white hat and the left pantaloons leg on the top uv the boot leg and that I hed sekured white hats enuff to supply the Club. Here a difficulty occurred. In the entire party there wuzn't a pair uv pantaloons which wuzn't worn off at least three inches above where the boot-top would be, and it bein warm weather the [illegible] wuz all barefooted. However they took the hats readily, and I stashed myself at the table to receive the cash for em. A profit of fifty-five dollars wuzn't so bad. Alas! how human hopes are blighted! Bascom sed he'd take them hats, collect the money for em and credit me on account! and he did it. I didn't get a dollar uv it!

I swallowed it ez best I mite, for it ain't no good to make a row about it. No one in the Corners kin oppose Bascom, for he hez all the likker there is. But we hed a jolificashen over the organizashen. It wuz a cheerin site to see fifty men all in Greeley white hats drinkin the health uv the great Horris in Bascom's new whisky! It wuz a cheerin site to see the zeal with wich admirers uv the white-coated philanthropist, all in white hats, went for sich niggers ez they found in the streets that nite! I don't despair uv seein niggers flogged under them white hats.

PETROLEUM V. NASBY,
(Wich wuz Postmaster.)

Greeley and the New York Democrats.

From the Sacramento Union.]

A correspondent of the Herald, writing from the Democratic State Convention at Rochester, N. Y., on the 14th and 15th instant, tells something about the attitude of the New York Democracy toward Greeley, at that time. The Herald correspondent wrote on the 14th, of but three prominent New York Democrats who were talking much against Greeley and insisting strongly upon a separate Democratic ticket. These were country delegates, and the opposition to Greeley, he states in this connection, is generally from the western part of the State. The leader of the anti-Greeley movement in the rural districts of the West is John J. Van Allen, of Schuyler county. Van Allen says the Democratic objections to Greeley are, that he did more than any one else "to hound on the war," that "he has been a free-lover, Fourierite, and bran-bread disciple," and generally a leader of the odds and ends of parties, with a train of hungry, disappointed camp followers and cormorants, "who are not actuated by principle, but stand ready to desert and betray the party at any hour of peril."

He also objects to Greeley's protective principles, and declares the great majority of the people are for free trade. Being questioned by the correspondent as to what would be the effect in case the Baltimore Convention shall indorse Greeley or refuse to make any nomination of its own, Van Allen replied that it would be a declaration of political bankruptcy and completely dissolve the Democratic party. Such an event he thought would be disastrous to the best interests of the country, as he regards the Democracy as the "bulwark of republican institutions." Van Allen is classed by the Herald correspondent among those Democrats "who have either been in Fort Lafayette, or might have been," for the support they gave to Jeff Davis and his confederates during the civil war.

Among those Democrats at the Rochester Convention who favored the indorsement of Greeley by the Baltimore Convention, the Herald's man names Henry Richmond, son of Dean Richmond, General Farrell, John M. Jaycox, George J. Magee, Gideon J. Tucker, General Slocum, John Fox of New York city, William C. Rowley, E. P. Hart, and Freeman of Broom. The latter concludes with the statement that if Greeley should be indorsed at Baltimore it will work a division of the Democratic party; and that none of the great leaders of the New York Democracy in past years—as Seymour, Charles O'Conor, Governor Hoffman, Amasa J. Parker, Sanford E. Church and Frank Kernan—were present, at the Rochester gathering to assist in shaping its policy.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE STATE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION AT PORTLAND, MARCH 20, 1872.

The Union Republican party of Oregon, in Convention, makes this declaration of its principles and policies:

1. To the Constitution of the United States and all its amendments we pledge our unfaltering allegiance, to its authority a willing obedience, to its full and legal construction and enforcement our constant support.

2. That the success of the present National Administration in reducing the public debt, diminishing and equalizing taxation, administering every branch of public affairs with economy and efficiency, forming and improving the civil service, enforcing the laws without fear or favor, protecting the nation's wards with paternal care against the cruel avarice of speculation and fraud, and maintaining friendly relations with Foreign Powers, has been such as to command the approbation of the great majority of the American people, and justly entitle it to the confidence and commendation of every true Republican.

3. We regard the payment of our national debt, in full compliance with all legal obligations to all our creditors everywhere, and in accordance with the true letter and spirit of its contracting, as no longer a question in issue, but that we may be clearly understood, we denounce all forms and degrees of repudiation of that debt, as affirmed by the Democratic party and its sympathizers, as not only national calamities, but positive crimes, and we will never consent to a suspicion of lack of honor or justice in its complete satisfaction.

4. We admit of no distinctions between citizens, whether of native or foreign birth; and therefore we favor the granting of full amnesty to the people of those States lately in rebellion; and we here pledge the full and effective protection of our civil laws to all persons voluntarily coming to or residing in our land.

5. We favor the encouragement of railroads by the General Government of the United States, and hold that such disposition should be made of the public lands as shall secure the same to actual settlers only, in quantities not exceeding 160 acres.

6. That while we are in favor of a revenue for the support of the General Government, by duties upon imports, sound policy requires such adjustment of those duties on imports as to encourage the development of the industrial interest of the whole country; and we recommend that policy of national exchange which secures to the working men liberal wages; to agriculture remunerative prices, to mechanics and manufacturers an adequate reward for their skill, labor and enterprise, and to the Nation commercial prosperity and independence.

7. We believe that popular education is the true basis and hope of a free government and shall ever oppose any diversion of, or interference with the common school funds or lands in this State, for any other than their legitimate purpose, and we condemn the act of favoritism by the last Legislature whereby two hundred thousand dollars, taken from the school fund, were granted to a corporation consisting mainly of Democratic leaders and party favorites, for the construction of a work which another corporation, entirely sound and responsible, offered to construct for seventy five thousand dollars less; and that we are in favor of the passage by the Legislature of an efficient school law, such as shall secure to all citizens of our State a good common school education.

8. We find no terms sufficiently strong to express our disapproval of the acts of the last Legislature whereby the swamp lands belonging to the State have been taken from the needy settler, and given without limit or proper competition in price to the land grabber and speculator, whereby the emoluments and salaries of State officers have been unconstitutionally increased, and the taxes increased thousands of dollars by the creation of new and unnecessary offices and salaries, for the purpose of providing for party favorites, and whereby the citizens of our metropolis have been deprived of and denied the right of controlling their own affairs. And we equally condemn the administration of our State's affairs and laws as extravagant, reckless, illegal and destructive, and we rightfully charge all these results as the acts of the Democratic party.

9. We are in favor of the United States giving to such honorably discharged soldier who served in the armies of the United States to put down the rebellion a warrant for a homestead of 160 acres of public lands.

10. That we demand the repeal of the so-called lithograph act, which was devised to support pauper Democratic newspapers at the public expense.

11. That the Republican party of this State are in favor of the General Government extending aid toward building a railroad from Portland, Oregon, to Salt Lake City, and from Jackson county to Humboldt, and we hereby pledge our party representatives to the support of the same.

12. That the indiscriminate licensing of persons to sell spirituous liquors without being placed under proper responsibilities for the abuse thereof, having been found by experience to promote the growth of crime and pauperism, and thereby to seriously increase the rate of taxation, the Republican party recognizes the right and duty of the law-making power to prevent and limit the evils and abuses of such sale, so far as concerns the public good and is consistent with individual liberty, by refusing to license other than law-abiding and responsible persons, who can furnish sufficient sureties for good conduct.

13. That the Republican party of Oregon is in favor of obtaining assistance from the General Government for the construction of a wagon road from the city of Portland to the Dalles, recognizing this as a most important and necessary improvement for the State.

14. We affirm that the continuance in power of the Republican party is the only sure guarantee of national peace and prosperity, and for reasons therefor we point to its brilliant record in the late civil war, to a complete national victory, to a united sisterhood of thirty seven States, to our Territories rapidly [illegible] State life, to a nation freed from the curse of slavery, to an elevated and enlarged [illegible] standing at home and abroad, [illegible] and to [illegible] prosperity everywhere [illegible] and these are our pledges for the future.

15. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party taken by the several [illegible] Conventions of seven States as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years and as the "Passive Policy" of that party already assumed in several of the States [illegible] judgment of their hopelessness [illegible] the coming Presidential campaign.

PLANTATION BITTERS!

S. T.—1860—X.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

LYON'S KATHAIRON,

For Preserving and Beautifying the Human Hair. To Prevent its Falling Out and Turning Grey.

A well-preserved Head of Hair, in a person of middle age, at once bespeaks refinement, elegance, health and beauty. It may truly be called Woman's Crowning Glory, while men are not insensible to its advantages and charms. Few things are more disgusting than thin, frizzly, harsh, untamed Hair, with head and coat covered with Dandruff. Visit a barber and you feel and look like a new man. This is what LYON'S KATHAIRON will do all the time! The charm which lies in well placed Hair, Glossy Curls, Luxuriant Tresses, and a Clean Head, is noticeable and irresistible.
